Comments/Historical Information Chapter 255 Statutes of 1941 added the Business and Professions Code section 5602.  The fund was created as a successor to the two separate funds previously in existence for the northern and southern districts. This chapter also reorganized and changed the composition of the administrative body by combining the two district boards into a statewide board.  Chapter 1054 Statutes of 2000 retitled this fund from California Board of Architectural Examiners Fund to the California Architects Board Fund.  The California Architects Board administers this fund within the Department.
